Summary Captures Key Provisions of New Health Reform Law

The Kaiser Family Foundation has prepared a detailed summary of the new health reform law, breaking out its key provisions by topic. The summary reflects the provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, which President Obama signed March 23, as well as provisions of the Health Care & Education Reconciliation Act, which the President signed March 30. A separate timeline highlights the implementation dates for various elements of the new law, including more than a dozen key provisions scheduled to take effect this year. These resources are available through the Foundations' health reform gateway which also includes the Foundation™s other research, analysis and polling on health reform; columns by Kaiser President and CEO Drew Altman; and news summaries from Kaiser Health News, an editorially independent news service established by the Foundation.
