

CLACKAMAS COUNTY JUVENILE DEPARTMENT VICTIM IMPACT STATEMENT

Victim's Name: _____

Offending Youth Name: _____

If the case goes to court: If the alleged youth offender is adjudicated (found guilty), you have the right, as a crime victim, to speak at disposition (sentencing). You do not have to make a statement. If you want to make a written or spoken statement, you may use this form as a guide. Feel free to use additional pages. You may read your statement, ask to have your statement read, or have it given to the Judge. Your written or spoken statements may become part of the official court record. The judge, prosecutor, the youth offender, defense attorney and the juvenile counselor have access to your statement when it is given at disposition.

If the case is handled informally: This statement will still be used in holding the youth meaningfully accountable to the harm caused you. With your permission the statement will be shared with the youth, and will be used to inform the conditions of the youth's probation.
